

Rogue Cinema Recognizes First Cinematic Excellence Award Recipients

Rogue Cinema has created an award to recognize cinematic excellence in independent film, the Rogue Cinema Cinematic Excellence Award. The criteria for winning this award is nothing more than creating a superior independent film that stands out from its peers in its concept, quality and imagination. These awards are not handed out to just any film. Our reviewers considered these films to be the most special and innovative among the 480 films we've reviewed over the past three years. After conferring with the Rogue Cinema writing staff, the following films have been selected as our very first award winners.

A Bothered Conscience* - Dennis Smithers Jr.

The Awakening* - Mike Conway

The Crawling Brain* - Ron Ford

Deadpan Valentine* - Robin Lindsey

Fizzy Days* - Mark Millicent

Horror Business* - Christopher P. Garetano

Keep Drinking Men! The Story of Beer Drinkers in Space* - Frank Delle

Peter's Price* - Mitch Cohen

Terrarium* - Mike Conway

The Rogue Cinema Cinematic Excellence Award is given to the best of the best in independent film. Films given this award have been deemed by the critics of Rogue Cinema to be the finest examples of independent cinema.

For further information, visit the Awards page at the Rogue Cinema website:
<http://www.roguecinema.com/content-168.html>.